1. Thank your local firefighters, police officers or first responders by surprising them with handmade cards or sweet treats
2. Pay for the person behind you in a drive-through line
3. Tape coupons to different products around the grocery store
4. Shovel or plow your neighbor's driveway
5. Write thank-you notes to people that you don't say "thank you" to often enough
6. Tape up inspiring notes inside of dressing rooms
7. Buy a bouquet of flowers for a friend
8. Give away hot coco in your neighborhood
9. Donate homemade 'get well soon' cards to local hospitals
10. Create a diaper-exchange care package and leave it in a public bathroom
11. Next time there's a sale on canned goods, buy some extra and donate it to your local food bank

A proven history of helping kids & families...

The Jacob Wetterling Resource Center was founded to educate and assist families and communities to address and prevent the exploitation of children. They continue to work to end all forms of child maltreatment through education, training and prevention while advocating for and serving children, adult survivors and communities.

We want to see your acts of kindness! Email us photos of you and your community doing acts of kindness at news@thenewsleaders.com. Be sure to list the first and last names of everyone in the photo(s), as well as which township you reside in and a caption for your act of kindness. Include your telephone number and email address in case we have questions about the photos. Entries will be shared on our social media pages, website, and in upcoming print editions.
